I was ten or eleven years old and I went with a friend and my mom. We made a poster and I wore a Hanson T-shirt. I stopped liking them in high school because they were unpopular. I've gotten back into them recently and they're pretty good. It was awesome how musically talented they were at such a young age.

What I say is Offspring-

What is under the table New Kids on the Block-

Shhhh...don't tell anyone.
